Grammar: Language Focus: Tag Question (pages 88, 89)

Form:

positive statement	negative tag
Snow is white,	isn't it?
negative statement	positive tag
You don't like me,	do you?

Usage: We use tag questions to ask for confirmation. They mean something like: "Is that right?" or "Do you agree?" They are very common in English.

When the verb in the main sentence is in the present simple we form the question tag with do / does.

Example:

You play the guitar, don't you?
Alison likes tennis, doesn't she?

If the verb is in the past simple we use did.

Example:

They went to the cinema, didn't they?
She studied in New Zealand, didn't she?

If there is a modal verb in the main part of the sentence the question tag uses the same modal verb.

Example:

They couldn't hear me, could they?
You won't tell anyone, will you?

Be careful with question tags with sentences that start 'I am'. The question tag for 'I am' is 'aren't I'?

Example:

I'm the fastest, aren't I?
I'm beautiful, aren't I?
